

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Amendments to the title of the application and claims have been made herein to better reflect the subject matter of the claims elected for prosecution in this application.

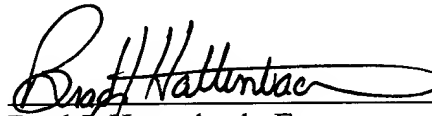

The Office action indicates claims 26-48, 66-85, and 94 are allowed. Applicants remind the Office that claim 95 was likewise presented in Applicants' amendment and response dated 1 April 2003. However, the status of claim 95 is not addressed in the present Office action. Applicants believe claim 95 is likewise allowable and request that the notice of allowance include claim 95.

Filed herewith is a supplemental information disclosure statement. The Office is requested to review the references cited therein and acknowledge their submission.

The Office is also reminded that an information disclosure statement was filed on 30 April 2003 in this matter. However, the present Office action does not indicate that these references were considered in the examination of this application. Applicants therefore request the Office review the references cited in the 30 April 2003 filing and acknowledge their submission.

Applicants request a notice of allowance of claims 26-48, 66-85, and 94-95 in due course.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of August 2003.
